Outside the Box Productions Wants You
- Local event planners recruit Street Team -

San Antonio, Texas (2008) - Ever dreamed of being next to the Spurs players during the Championship Parade? What about being backstage with Clint Black during a concert? Or how about assisting Avery Johnson during a book signing event? Those dreams and so many more can come true when you are a part of the Outside the Box Productions Street Team. Members of this team will be contacted prior to events to assist with grassroots marketing, event set-up and event coordination.

“This is a great way to break into the industry, meet new friends and have fun at the same time,” said Wendy Welsh, President and CEO of Outside the Box Productions. Team members will be outfitted in official “Outside the Box Street Team” gear and depending on the event, will receive event tickets or cold, hard cash for their time.

If you or someone you know is interested in being apart of this exciting team during their free time and are at least 18 years of age or older, please send in the following information to ariane@outsidetheboxevents.com:
